THE CONCERT FOR CHRIST CHURCH A BRILLIANT SUCCESS.

The concert given under the patronage of Mrs. Scarritt Moreno for Christ Church attracted a cultured and appreciative audience that filled Library Hall.

Among the excellent features were the four choruses sung by the choir of Christ Church.

The Program.

1. Chorus, "Sir Knight, Sir Knight, Oh, Whither Away."
2. Recitation, "Calline's Wedding"—Miss White.
3. Duett, "Poet and Peasant"—Misses S. and E. Moreno.
4. Violin Solo, "Berceuse," (Jocelyn)—Miss C. L. Simmons.
5. Baritone Solo, "Gypsy Love Song"—Mr. Monroe.
6. Quartette, "Annie Laurie"—Messrs. Garfield, Anderson, Bushnell and Walker.

Intermission.
1. Chorus, "The Sea Hath Its Pearls."
2. Baritone Solo, "Oh, Ye Winds and Waves" (Händel)—Mr. Dorr.
3. Solo, "Fiddle and I"—Miss White, Violin obligato by Miss Mallory.

4. Piano Solo, "Staccato Caprice" (Vogel)—Miss Willis.
5. Solo, "Slumber and Sleep"—Miss MacLay, Violin obligato by Miss Mallory.

6. Chorus, "Good Night, Good Night, Beloved."
Accompanists—Prof. Hill and Miss Anderson.

Director of Chorus—Prof. Hill.
As will be seen some of the very best local amateur talent assisted, and the honors were so evenly divided that special mention would be invidious.

Prof. Hill was especially complimented on the artistic achievements of his pupils and all concerned are to be congratulated.

Right Reverend Edwin G. Weed will be the guest of Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Mitchell during his stay in the city.

MISS WHITING'S WASHINGTON TEA.

Miss Belle Whiting's afternoon tea yesterday for the Junior Guild of Christ church was a lovely affair.

The decorations were all Washingtonian, hatches, cherry trees and a group of pretty maids in Martha Washington costume, who served were Miss Johnnie Skinner, Miss Roberta Fisher, Miss Louise Quina, Miss Belle Hyer, Miss Emily Jones and Miss Emily Whaley.

SURPRISED MISS KLUMKER.

A party of her friends gave Miss Kate Klumker a surprise Tuesday night. There were flinch, music, and refreshments and all spent a pleasant evening.

In the party, besides Miss Klumker, were, Mrs. Charles Perry, chaperone, Miss Georgia Perry, Miss Edith Jeanette, Miss Essie Brooks, Mr. Wright, Mr. Dewitt and Mr. Willie Perry.

MET WITH MRS. McCLAN.

The Excelsior Flinch Club was pleasantly entertained last evening by Mrs. Angus M. McMillan. There were five tables of players and in addition to the decoration of flags, a dainty touch of the sentiment of the day was afforded by the score cards which were little hatches, and Miss Lomie Gould scored.

The visitors were Mrs. McClellan of the navy yard, Mrs. Reed of Montbrook, Fla., and Miss Robinson of Dastrop, Louisiana.

Cream, cake, cherries and frappe were daintily served and the meeting was a very pleasant one. The next will be with Mrs. Brawner.

TO VISIT MISS WOOD.

The many friends of Miss Edna Thompson, now of Troy, O., but formerly of this city, will be pleased to learn that she is expected to arrive in a few days on a visit to Miss Minnie C. Wood, 14 East La Rue.

Miss Thompson is now in Prattville, Ala., where she has spent the winter visiting the family of Rev. Mr. McNeil, former pastor of the Palafax Street M. E. Church, and the young people among whom she is popular, will be glad to know that Miss Thompson will be the guest of Miss Wood for the remainder of the season.

MISS KESSLER'S DINNER FOR MISS BERRET.

Miss Kessler entertained delightfully at "Hollywood," the Kessler home on the bayshore, with a Washington dinner last evening at half past 6, for her cousin and guest, Miss Eleanor Berret of Baltimore, Md., and, incidentally to celebrate the birthday of the charming hostess herself.

The decorations were American flags. Covers were laid for twelve and the place cards for the girls were quaint paper sachets in the form of colonial hats and for the men were hatches hand painted in cherries and tied with red, white and blue ribbons. Ribbons and bonbons in the national colors were beautifully arranged in the embellishment of the table and the same colors were prominent throughout the menu.

The centerpiece was a large birthday cake decorated with tiny American flags, and on its top rested a hatchet which was used to cut the cake. Miss Kessler's guests were, Miss Berret the honoree, Miss Sallie Wright, Miss Stella Avery, Miss Celestine Brent, Miss Mildred Kessler, Captain Hase of Ft. Barrancas, Mr. A. A. Brooks, Mr. S. Monod Cross, Mr. Knowles Hyer, Mr. J. P. O'Connor and Mr. Will DeC. Kessler.

After dinner hostess and guests attended the dance at the Osceola Club.

ATTORNEY GENERAL OF PORTO RICO, AND DAUGHTER ARRIVE.

Col. A. G. Stewart, the new attorney general of Porto Rico, and daughter, Miss Lisle Stewart of Waukon, Iowa, arrived in the city Tuesday evening. Miss Stewart on a visit to Mrs. Thomas F. McGourin 805 North Spring, and Col. Stewart to look after his interests here and see his old friends.

When Col. Stewart accepted the appointment to Porto Rico, he started for Washington, stopping at Oberlin College for his daughter, who was a student there, and keeping her with him as much as possible before leaving her for the island.

They enjoyed a delightful season in Washington together and had hoped to spend a week or more together in this city, but on arrival at his hotel Col. Stewart found a telegram awaiting him which notified him that his presence was needed at once in Porto Rico and he left on the midnight train, to the disappointment of his daughter and himself as well as of his friends. Miss Stewart is the charming guest of Mrs. McGourin, adding another to the number of attractive young ladies visiting in Pensacola.

WILL REMAIN IN FLORIDA.

The many friends of Mrs. R. C. Cooley, and particularly the Daughters of the Confederacy, will read with pleasure the following announcement which is reprinted from the Sunday Times-Union:

"Mrs. R. C. Cooley and Miss Florence Roselle Cooley, who are spending the winter among their friends in this, their native state, will make a winter home at Jacksonville, Mr. Cooley will divide his time between West Virginia and Florida. All the members of the family have many friendships of long standing in Florida, and it is not strange that they prefer sunny Florida to the ice and snow of West Virginia."

NOBLE ADMIRAL COMING.

The date of the visit to American waters of the squadron of British warships commanded by Rear Admiral Prince Louis of Battenberg, has been definitely fixed for October. It will comprise a short stay at Newport, New York and Annapolis. Vice-Admiral Lord Charles Beresford goes to America on a pleasure tour shortly after he relinquishes his present command prior to becoming admiral in command of the Mediterranean squadron. Admiral Beresford will go south as far as Florida—Army and Navy Register.

OSCEOLA CLUB DANCE.

The third dance in the regular series of the Osceola Club dances, was given in the club's suite of handsome rooms last night. The usual delightful supper was served and another brilliant social function is scored to their credit.

The usual contingent of army and navy officers and ladies was present and the bayshore was well represented.

MISS COVINGTON'S CHAFING DISH LUNCHEON.

Miss Edna Covington entertained with a noon luncheon yesterday for her cousin and guest, Miss Lois Covington of North Carolina, and the Misses Lewis of Valdosta, Ga. In addition to the delightfully informal service of the various delicious concoctions there was vocal and instrumental music, that was greatly enjoyed.

Miss Covington's guests in addition to the three charming honorees, were Miss Elise Chipley, Miss Edna Avery, Miss Mamie Merritt, Miss Hanway, (of Mississippi) Miss Katherine Avery, Miss Willis, Miss McGaughey, Miss Mildred Kessler and her cousin, Miss Berret (of Baltimore), Miss Ruby Mallory, Miss Louise Covington, Miss Annie Baars, Miss Florence Turtle, Miss Herring (of Brooklyn, N. Y.) Miss Mary Chaffin, Miss Albert Hyer, Miss Cora Mallory, Mrs. J. Campbell Avery, Jr., Mrs. R. H. Turner Jr., Mrs. Whiting Hyer, Mrs. C. M. Covington, Mrs. Charles W. Lamar.

Spring is here and a party of East Hill devotees were disputing in the sunny waters of Bayou Texar Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. John Walter Higgins has cards out for an "at home" Monday, Feb. 27, from 4 to 6 to meet her mother Mrs. William F. Eno of Chicago, and her guest Miss Herring of Brooklyn, N. Y.

Mr. J. G. Joyner who has been ill, is now able to be out to the pleasure of his many friends, but Mrs. Joyner is quite ill at their residence on East Gregory.

Miss Minnie C. Wood has returned from a visit of several weeks to Miss Halliday in Cottondale and Miss Ervin in DeFuniak.

Miss Edna Covington and Miss Louise Covington have returned from a charming visit in Birmingham, Ala.

Mrs. C. W. Lamar will give a dance Friday night at the Osceola Club complimentary to her guests, the Misses Lewis.

Apalachicola Times: Capt. G. B. McGill and Miss Mena Suarez, of Pensacola arrived in Apalachicola a few days since and accompanied Miss Ethel Suarez to Pensacola. Miss Ethel Suarez has been the charming guest of relatives here—Mr. and Mrs. R. Collins.

Mrs. Alex Read and daughter, Miss Mildred, of Montbrook, Fla., are visiting her sister, Mrs. A. E. Zellus, and will remain for several weeks.

The friends of Mrs. Mary Lovendahl will be happy to learn that she is recovering slowly but surely from a three weeks' illness, during which the good woman has been sadly missed by her neighbors, especially the sick to whom she is always so kind.

The Misses Bernadette and Celestine Quina give a card party this afternoon for Miss Heintz of Buffalo, N. Y., Miss Hanway of Greenville, Miss, and Mrs. R. H. Turner, Jr., formerly Miss Quina.

Mrs. M. B. Pilcher of Nashville, Tenn., aunt of Mrs. W. Chipley Jones, is in the city en route to De Funiak Springs, and is staying at Mrs. B. B. Smith's on North Barcelona. About March 5 or 6, she will be joined by her husband, Captain Pilcher and they will go to De Funiak for the Chautauqua season.

AMUSEMENTS.

LAST NIGHT'S PLAY.

"The Volunteer Organist" was a disappointment.

As it was played here last night it is but a little better than a good repertoire play by a good "ten-twenty-and-thirty-cent" company. As a one-night's stand show it is most certainly not worth the price of admission.

The players were very ordinary—some considerably below the ordinary, but none better.

It is a melodrama of the old type, with the old maid of corkscrew curls, the persecuted girl, the lover, the villain, the accomplice, and the benefactor, the only difference being that the hero and very naturally the lover, is a preacher with modern ideas, who advocates wide-open, licensed saloons in his little village, arguing that that was better than a prohibition law which encouraged the sale of liquor without license. It is a temperance play, with its temperance morals, its reforms, its happy ending, etc. There is but little in it to recommend a second tour.

CHARACTERS FOR CARNIVAL PARADE

SELECTIONS HAVE BEEN MADE AND THOSE WHO WILL TAKE PART ARE TO BE INSTRUCTED ON SUNDAY.

Selections have been made for all of the characters that are to be represented in the Mardi Gras parade. Sunday afternoon, at 3 o'clock, those that are to take part will be at the Carnival building, on West Garden street, when their positions and parts will be carefully explained.

As showing the great interest that is being worked up in the parade, a member of the Carnival Committee informs the Journal that over one hundred and twenty-five boys and young men have made applications to go upon the floats, including some tourists that are looking for fun and novelty.

PROMINENT LAW FIRM HAS BEEN DISSOLVED.

The law firm of Tunison & Loftin has been dissolved, owing to the continued illness of B. C. Tunison, who has been unable to attend to his practice for several months, and who is now confined to a hospital in New York city with abscesses on his neck. The interest of Mr. Tunison was purchased by Scott M. Loftin, the junior member of the firm, who will continue the business in his own name at the same place.

"THE GEORGIA MINSTRELS."

The famous funsters and laugh generators that have been collected from the higher ranks of minstrelsy under the banner of Richards & Pringle's Famous Minstrels will be seen at the opera house to-night.

No more welcome announcement than this could be made, to the fun-loving portion of the public. The management of this mammoth array of Senegambian talent have this season outdone all their previous efforts and have secured nearly all the well-known favorites for their production.

Novel and elaborate stage settings and costumes, which have taxed the artists' and costumers' skill and ingenuity, have been prepared to delight the eye, and the world of music has been probed to its innermost depths for the effects to charm the ear. With Clarence Powell, clever Billy Young, Pat Bartlett, Pete Woods, Robert Williams and a score of assistant comedians, the fun department is filled to overflowing. The biggest street parade ever attempted by a like organization is one of the features.

NEGRO DROPPED DEAD AT REUS AND MAIN STREETS.

George Watkins, colored, formerly employed as fireman on the dummy line, dropped dead at the corner of Reus and Main streets yesterday, the cause of death being heart failure. The body was removed to an undertaker's and it will be buried today.

REMAINS OF W. H. HARRISON SHIPPED TO CAMDEN.

The remains of W. H. Harrison, who died at St. Anthony's hospital Tuesday night, were shipped to the late home of the deceased, at Camden, Fla., yesterday afternoon, where interment will be made.

IN THE GOOD OLD-FASHIONED DAYS.

Powdered Wigs Formed an Important Adjunct to a Gentleman's Apparel.

It is safe to say that the majority of bald men of to-day would gladly revive the old, dignified custom if they could. But, they can do the next best thing to it; that is, hold on to what hair they have.

In cases where the hair root or hair bulb has not been completely destroyed by parasites that infest it, Newbro's Herpicide will do wonders in the way of encouraging a new growth of hair. Destroy the cause you remove the effect. That is the successful mission of Herpicide. Sold by leading druggists. For sale by W. A. D'Alemberte, druggist and apothecary, 121 S. Palafox. Send 10 cents in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Company, Detroit, Mich.
